THE PRESENTER

Mark Junkin is Pastor at Zion Lutheran Church in Vassar. He received his Masters of Divinity from Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, a Lutheran teaching credential from Concordia University in Irvine, and a Bachelors of Arts in English from California State University Stanislaus. He's lived in Illinois, Indiana, Utah, Missouri, Wisconsin, and California. Mark's father is an LCMS pastor and a public educator, and among his five siblings and in-laws are four more professional educators.

Mark is single, age "six-squared", and has sixteen nieces and nephews. God blessed him with faith in Baptism from two-weeks old, and has blessed him to live among the salt-of-the-earth ever since.
