MACAU – Ed Strohschein and John went to Macau in the last week of August to help with the orientation that Sharon Owens and her staff were doing for the new long-term volunteers who will be teaching English at the Concordia Language Center in Macau and at a center in China. You can see that this is a happy group when they are eating. The Lord has richly blessed this program with many people this fall. Please continue to pray for these servants.

To the right you see Maggie, John and Pastor Yung. Maggie is an assistant in the Macau office and helps keep things going. Rev. Yung is the pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Macau. He works with the Sharon Owens and the volunteers who teach at the center in Macau to try to connect with people taking English classes. He has worked in Macau for many years and has seen the changes associated with the handover of Macau to China and now with the many casinos that have filled up the landscape. God has been in charge through it all and many have come to know Christ through the efforts of St. Paul's Lutheran.

KIDSTUFF – Ted went with us to the communion rail on Sunday and received a blessing from Pastor Koehneke. When we return to our seats he sighed and said, "Life is really good. Confirmation class is good. School is good. My room is rearranged. Life is really good." There you have it.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Pray for the long and short-term volunteers working in the Macau/Jiangmen program.
- Pray for Pastor Yung and St. Paul Lutheran Church in Macau.
